“ Dear Anne and Brenda and families,
It is with deep sadness, I extend my heartfelt sympathy in hearing of your loss. I can say without a doubt, I have felt no finer kinship and closeness to any friend in my lifetime, as I have had with Judy. We always seemed to understand one-another and be able to say and hear from each other what we needed at any given moment. Perhaps it was sharing the same birthday's that "put us on the same page" and made us feel extra closeness. Mara gave me a number to reach Brenda and I was told it was a wrong number, so if either of you get a chance to call me I sure would like to touch base. I apologize for not having a current phone number for either of you girls. Please forgive me as my mind has been so cluttered this past 10 days, that married names are escaping me at the moment, so I am at a loss to contact you now. We just lost another family member who's service will be in Effingham on Saturday afternoon too, and we have mother in the hospital with a broken hip, etc. due to a bad fall in her home a week ago Sunday. We were blessed to see great improvement today, but at age 93 we are spending lots of hours there at the hospital helping watch over her too. Hopefully she is soon ready to move to a nursing rehab center possibly as soon as tomorrow so the next few days may be a difficult transition. Therefore please understand if we can only be with you in our hearts and prayers for now, and take comfort that we all know what a wonderful relationship she had with not only her family, but also with our Heavenly Father. Love, to all of you, from Tom and Linda
