“ As I recall the many visits I shared with Aunt Pauline they were all very special because she made them special. On my last visit she and I were talking about how blessed we were with our children and grand babies. She ask me if I had pictures of my babies oh but do I was my reply. I opened my photo gallery on my phone and started showing her. She just smiled as I past through each photo. My heart was and always will be filled with love for this sweet lady. Before I left that afternoon she and I hugged and told each other I love you. I will miss you Aunt Pauline RIP until I see you again!
